

Assisted Living Financial Options

At Avery Crossings we understand the challenges faced by seniors who are ready for assisted living but are uncertain how best to afford it. Listed below are some options that may help defray the cost.

Veterans Aid and Attendance Program

Avery Crossings has a relationship with Elder Resource Benefits Consulting, a company that will provide guidance in obtaining the Aid and Attendance Benefit. The Department of Veterans Affairs provides eligible veterans, their surviving spouses and couples with up to $1,950 per month toward the cost of assisted living.

Shared Suites

For the budget-conscious individual or for those who want companionship, Avery Crossings can help match you with a roommate to share living costs and apartment space.

Group Adult Foster Care (GAFC)

Avery Crossings, in cooperation with the Executive Office of Elder Affairs, provides this program as a means for eligible seniors to receive assistance with activities of daily living in a residential setting. To qualify, candidates must meet financial and clinical eligibility.
